

My Child ' s Reading Snapshot

A quick guide to help teachers understand your child ' s reading world.

1. Strengths & Interests

What does your child love reading, talking, or learning about? What comes easily for them? (Think: stories, topics, characters, or even reading routines they enjoy.)

Example: Example: Loves anything with animals or mysteries; remembers story details well.

2. What Motivates My Child

What lights their spark to keep reading or listening to stories? (Rewards? Connection time? Choice? Curiosity? Humor?)

Example: Example: Likes to choose between two books; loves when we act out parts together.

3. Strategies That Help at Home

What approaches, tools, or routines make reading smoother or more joyful? (Do they benefit from movement breaks, whisper reading, or visual cues?)

Example: Example: Using a reading pointer helps her stay focused; reading aloud together builds confidence.

4. Questions I ' d Love Your Insight On

What would you like to learn or clarify about how your child reads at school? (Example: Are there specific patterns you ’ ve noticed in decoding, stamina, or comprehension?)

5. Our Shared Goal

Every child grows best when home and school work together. What ’ s one small goal you ’ d like to focus on together this term?

Example: Example: Building stamina for independent reading.

“ Partnerships don ’ t have to be perfect — they just need to be consistent and caring. ”
